JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, August 25—Labor Day, September 2d, will be celebrated at the Jamestown Exposition in a manner rarely equalled in point of magnificence. The unions of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News and all Tidewater Virginia have united with the Exposition in a perfecting plan for a grand celebration in honor of Labor Day. Among those invited to participate in the program are Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; John Mitchell, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor; William Randolph Hearst, Governor Glenn, of North Carolina and President Roosevelt.

In addition to the addresses, many special features will be added to produce a national union labor celebration of unprecedented scale. Before the gates there will be military parades of infantry, cavalry, artillery and National Guard, band concerts by the Imperial Band of the City of Mexico, the Exposition Band and many military bands. There will be parades of Warpath artists, brilliant electrical illuminations of buildings, grounds, fountains and harbor and grand displays of the fireworks at night.

Athletic Carnival.
During the day there will be an athletic carnival of gigantic proportions as a part of the Labor Day program.

The meet will be open to registered athletes from all over the country, and already a great many have signified their intention of entering the contests. Amateur Athletic Union rules will govern the events, and handsome medals will be awarded the winners.

Competing at the race of college and amateur athletes the events will include the 100-yard dash, with handicap; the 220-yard dash, also with handicap; and the half-mile runs, handicaps being likewise allowed in these latter events.

The hurdle race will be the hurdle race, running and standing broad jump, the high jump, together with the hammer and discus throwing.

One of the most interesting events is expected to be the half-mile run, which will be given by a special train. There are a number of local athletes who will enter this event, and the finish will be close and exciting.

Following this there will be a series of events open only to members of the Labor Unions. These contests will embrace the fat men's race, the potato race, etc.
